

K-Love is a much needed station in my local area. There are very few options for good christian radio. Removing K-love would take away my right for the music I want to hear. It gives people in my community a choice. That is what American is about... choice!